Hello Neighbor!

ERNC Meets Tuesday @ 7:00 PM

It's summertime, but there's a ton of stuff going on in Eagle Rock!

- First, the Eagle Rock Neighborhood Council holds its monthly board meeting tomorrow, Tuesday, July 1 at 7:00pm, at Eagle Rock City Hall, 2035 Colorado Boulevard. All Eagle Rockers are welcome and encouraged to attend. Click here to read the meeting agenda (PDF). (See the box below for highlights.)

- Next, you may have noticed a bunch of orange City of LA trucks driving around Colorado Boulevard, cutting squares out of the sidewalks, and installing shade trees. You may also have noticed that this kind of thing is not happening in other neighborhoods. Did the Tree Fairy wave his or her magic wand over Eagle Rock? Not quite. (But close.) See below for details.

- Finally, what's with all these new stores and restaurants opening up in Eagle Rock? Why are there so many interesting new small-lot housing developments going into formerly abandoned lots? How come traffic is calmer, crossing the street is safer, and our streets seem more active with pedestrians and people on bikes?

(It's fairies, again, right?)

On the agenda...

The ERNC meeting agenda (at this link) is packed this month, and it will be in August, as well. It's the price we pay for living in an interesting place, and for having a Neighborhood Council that likes to get things done. Among the highlights are:

- A discussion of the Scholl Canyon Landfill Expansion Environmental Impact Report. You'll receive a separate email about this later in the week, as the ERNC solicits your input for our official letter.

- Whether the ERNC wants to sponsor a State Senate debate between candidates Kevin DeLeon and Peter Choi.

- An announcement of the August 6 meeting about amending the Colorado Boulevard Specific Plan. This is a huge deal for Eagle Rock (and you will receive a separate email about this issue, too).

- A liquor license application for Madradentro, a new restaurant on Colorado run by Eagle Rock's favorite son, Jesse Gomez.

- Approval of the ERNC's fiscal year budget for 2014-15, including a discussion of free wifi for the area around Eagle Rock City Hall.

You Wanted Trees. You Got Trees.

For the past 6 months, the ERNC has been working to swing an unprecedented deal with the City of Los Angeles, to bring more shade trees to our sun-blasted boulevards in Eagle Rock. For decades, there have been blighted commercial blocks where no trees have been planted, often because there was no one to sign the tree-care contract required by the City, or because business owners refused to sign, since they believed that trees were bad for business.

But Council District 14 staff and the ERNC had a different idea: What if we could pay a third party, in this case, a local nonprofit (Northeast Trees), to care for and water the new street trees, so that the contract wouldn't be required? The sidewalks belong to the people, and the people have told us that they want shade when they park and walk and shop, and they want nice green leafy things to look at.

So when the City of LA approached Eagle Rock's community groups with the offer of free unlimited concrete cuts in our sidewalks, and free trees to put in them -- as long as we could find the money to care for the trees for two years -- the ERNC got to work. A couple of ERNC members (especially former Subdistrict 4 director, Kerry Tribe) pounded the pavement, crunched the numbers, and endured sunburn, tired feet, and missed work opportunities to collaborate with members of the Eagle Rock Association (TERA) and Collaborative Eagle Rock Beautiful (CERB) on a map of over 400 spots for potential street trees on Eagle Rock's major boulevards.

The original plan from CD-14 was to have new parkways along with the new trees throughout Eagle Rock - an Extreme Makeover for our major streets. However in the end, as in all things, we made a compromise: we got fewer trees than we wanted - around 160 - and we ended up paying for a few dozen trees in Highland Park. The expanded parkways were a pipe dream, since there were no volunteers to take on the effort. But it's a victory nonetheless.

Funding for the tree care is being split 50-50 between Eagle Rock (including the ERNC, TERA, and the Colorado Boulevard Specific Plan Parking Credit Fund) and Councilmember José Huizar. In the next ERNC newsletter, we'll break down the numbers. But suffice it to say, none of this would be happening without the financial and organizational support of the Councilmember and his conscientious local staff, along with the dedicated tree people at the City of L.A.'s Environmental Services Group and Bureau of Street Services.

You may have noticed that we're using a new web address: www.ernc.la. Everything still goes to the same place, and our Google account will forever be tied to "eaglerockcouncil.org," but we feel that "dot LA" (as in Los Angeles) reflects what we do more than "dot org," which is usually reserved for nonprofits. It's also easier to remember. So if you have any questions at all about the ERNC, or just want to get in touch, just shoot us an email at: info@ernc.la

The Eagle Rock Neighborhood Council (ERNC) is an official organization of the City of Los Angeles, staffed by 19 elected, unpaid volunteers. Our Board is composed of Eagle Rock stakeholders from all walks of life, who share a desire to make our home town a safer, greener, and more prosperous place to live.

Our job is neighborhood empowerment: We act as your advocates and liaisons to the City Council, the Mayor, and all City of L.A. departments that touch the lives of Eagle Rockers. Join us at one of our meetings, or talk to us at a community event, and find out how we can make Eagle Rock even better, together.

Subject: SoCal Gas Transmission Line Issues to be Discussed Wed @ 2pm Ramona Hall

The public is welcome to attend our next task force meeting on Wed 7/2 at 2:00pm in Ramona Hall. The agenda is below. Of significance to Northeast LA residents is item II.c on the agenda. This item summarizes the safety concerns our task force has uncovered pertaining to the large 30"+ high-pressure transmission lines similar to the one that exploded in San Bruno 4 years ago. This large pipeline then heads across the Arroyo Seco River on Ave 60 and continues through Hermon into El Sereno. You can see a map of these lines by going to www.socalgas.com <http://www.socalgas.com/> and searching for

"Maps".

Hi Everyone,

My husband, 1 year-old daughter and I are relocating to LA and are looking for a house to rent starting around October (we are flexible). We are great tenants, considerate, great credit, clean, always pay on time, etc.

Looking for a cute house with small yard, 2 bedrooms. Bonus if there is a garage or other separate studio structure. Would love to stay under $2500, but might be able to afford a little more if there is a studio. I make jewelry and my husband does post production film sound.

If you know of anything or good rental resources, I would love to know! (Already know about craigslist, Rental Girl and westside rentals). You can email emilyg76 at hotmail.com.

Thank you!

Emily, Scott and Issa
